

Plugs

KST WS 14/4

| Product                                                                        | KST WS 14/4                                                                                                                                                                       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| description                                                                    | Jumper plug with spring-loaded 4 mm plugs and one 4 mm unsprung socket for connection with all 4 mm spring-loaded plugs that are not contact-protected. Shatter-proof insulation. |
| operating instruction                                                          | BA416                                                                                                                                                                             |
| article-no. /*colour                                                       | 9722651xx●00blackNi                                                                                                                            |
| drawing                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                                                                |                                                                                               |
| technical data                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| rated voltage                                                                  | 30 VAC / 60 VDC                                                                                                                                                                   |
| measurement cat. acc. to IEC 61010                                             | O <sup>(2)</sup>                                                                                                                                                                  |
| rated current(consider derating curve)                                     | 32 A                                                                                                                                                                              |
| material plug                                                                  | brass, nickel plated                                                                                                                                                              |
| housing material                                                               | PBT                                                                                                                                                                               |
| temperature range acc. To IEC61010 <sup>(1)</sup>                              | -15 °C to 70 °C                                                                                                                                                                   |
| flammability class acc. to UL 94(only valid for basic material of housing) | HB                                                                                                                                                                                |

<sup>(1)</sup> contact the manufacturer for applications at deviating temperature ranges

<sup>(2)</sup> without rated measurement category, for other circuits that are not directly connected to mains

stand: 21.06.2022

stand: 21.06.2022